

John Ackerman
Executive Vice President
Global Strategy & Development
Dallas Fort Worth International Airport

John Ackerman serves as Executive Vice President of Global Strategy and Development at Dallas Fort Worth International Airport. He leads DFW's Airline Relations, Cargo, Research and Analytics, Government Relations, and International Marketing and Public Relations functions. Mr. Ackerman joined the DFW staff in January 2015.

Mr. Ackerman directs DFW's efforts to raise the Airport's global profile through international air service and business development. He helped develop the Airport's strategic plan, which is focused on being the premier gateway between Asian and Latin America for both passengers and cargo.

Prior to DFW Airport he worked as Denver International Airport's Chief Commercial Officer, was a pilot and executive at United Airlines, and was a Senior Director of Product Management at Standard & Poor's.

Mr. Ackerman served as an active duty officer and pilot in the U.S. Marine Corps and holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Duke University.
