

BRIDGET M. LOPEZ
Board of Directors
Dallas Fort Worth International Airport

Bridget Moreno Lopez is the managing partner of the Dallas Office of Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP. Mrs. Lopez was appointed to the DFW International Airport Board as a representative of the City of Dallas for a two-year term that began in February 2015.

Lopez graduated from Texas Tech University, cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science. With her Doctorate of Jurisprudence from Texas Tech University School of Law, she began practicing law in 1999. Mrs. Lopez is a former felony Dallas County prosecutor who served in the child abuse and family violence divisions. Lopez joined Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP as an associate attorney in 2004. At the firm she served as the administrative attorney over the Litigation Division for seven years and gained significant experience in client relations, management and marketing prior to her appointment to managing partner. Mrs. Lopez has spoken and written extensively in the areas of tax litigation and litigation management at various symposiums across the state on behalf of the law firm. In 2005, she was named a Texas Monthly Magazine “Texas Rising Star,” for her outstanding contributions to the legal profession.

An active member of her community, Mrs. Lopez was appointed commissioner for the City of Dallas’ Redistricting Commission in 2001. In 2005, she served as an advisory member of the Bachman Lake Land Use Study on behalf of the newly created Council District 6. Mrs. Lopez is a member of the Dallas Bar Association, the Dallas Hispanic Bar Association, the Hispanic 100, the Greater Dallas Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, the Dallas Regional Chamber of Commerce, the North Texas Chapter of the Texas Association of Assessing Officers, and the National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials. She is actively involved with several nonprofit organizations and served on the Board of Trustees for the Dallas Children’s Advocacy Center from 2009 - 2014, where she also served as the Board’s chair of governmental relations from 2009 to 2012. In 2013, Mrs. Lopez was appointed to the Board of Trustees for the Friends of the Latino Cultural Center in the City of Dallas and she currently serves as the vice chair. In 2014, she was appointed to serve on the inaugural Board of Visitors for the University of North Texas School of Law.

Mrs. Lopez lives in Dallas with her husband, Roy, and their two young children.
