

LILLIE M. BIGGINS

Board of Directors

Dallas Fort Worth International Airport

Lillie Biggins, a Fort Worth native and veteran of the health care industry, is the President of Texas Health Harris Methodist Hospital of Fort Worth. She joined the DFW Airport Board in April 2005 as a representative of the City of Fort Worth. Ms. Biggins served as Vice Chair of the Board from March 2006 through January 2008, as Chair from February 2008 through March 2009, as Vice Chair from February 2012 through January 2014, and was appointed Chair in February 2014.

Ms. Biggins joined Texas Health Fort Worth in 1997 as Vice President of Operations. Prior to that, she was Chief Nursing Officer at Columbia Plaza Medical Center of Fort Worth and Vice President of East Campus Operations at Plaza Medical Center of Fort Worth. She has 21 years of health care experience between John Peter Smith and Parkland Memorial Hospitals. Ms. Biggins held an appointment of assistant clinical professor from University of Texas Southwestern Medical School and is currently adjunct faculty at University of Texas at Arlington.

Ms. Biggins belongs to a number of professional organizations including the American College of Health Care Executives, American Organization of Nurse Executives, and Texas Nurses Association. She serves on the Workforce Solutions for Tarrant County Board, CareFlite Board of Directors, the North Texas LEAD Advisory Board, the YMCA Metropolitan Board, the Texas Hospital Association Committee on Trauma and the University of Texas at Arlington Nursing Advisory Board.

Ms. Biggins has received numerous honors for her ongoing commitment to community service including, The President's Volunteer Call to Service Award, Fort Worth Metropolitan Black Chamber of Commerce Eagle Award, Dallas Business Journal Minority Leader Award, Fort Worth Business Press Woman of Influence Award, American Heart Association's Board Member of the Year, DFW Metroplex Chapter National Women of Achievement Award, Texas Woman's University Distinguished Alumni Award and the Corporate Advocate of the Year Award from the Fort Worth Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. She was inducted into the Texas Women's Hall of Fame in 2014.

Ms. Biggins is a graduate of John Peter Smith School of Nursing. She received a Bachelor's degree from the University of Texas at Arlington and a Master's from Texas Woman's University. Ms. Biggins is the proud mother of four, and a grandmother of several beautiful grandchildren. She and her husband James live in Fort Worth.