

MARIO QUINTANILLA
Board of Directors
Dallas Fort Worth International Airport

Mario Quintanilla is Senior Vice President of Corporate Lending for Frost Bank in Dallas. He was appointed to the DFW International Airport Board by the Dallas City Council in February 2019.

He serves as Sales Manager for the Uptown and South Dallas markets, managing a business development team of commercial lenders who focus on medium and small business clients. He joined Frost in 2014 after working over 30 years in the financial services industry, including 23 years as a banker with J.P. Morgan Chase in Dallas.

Civic involvement includes serving on the Board of Directors of The Oak Cliff Chamber of Commerce and Dallas Services on their Executive Committees as Treasurer for both organizations. Dallas Services, a nonprofit that provides low-vision services and education to preschoolers. His past civic duties include serving as Chairman of The Greater Dallas Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, as well as the appointment to the City of Dallas Tax Increment Financing Board of the American Airlines Center.

Mario holds a Bachelor in Business Administration degree from Texas State University. He was born and raised in Dallas, and he and his wife, Lisa, have two daughters, Cara and Erica.