

HENRY BORBOLLA III
Vice Chair, Board of Directors
Dallas Fort Worth International Airport

Henry Borbolla III is Vice President of Commercial Banking with Ciera Bank in Fort Worth. He was appointed to the DFW International Airport Board by Mayor Betsy Price as a representative of Fort Worth in October 2015.

Borbolla's career in the financial industry spans thirty years and includes service as a CFO in the manufacturing sector in addition to commercial and private banking. A graduate of Texas Christian University, the Fort Worth native is an active community volunteer and has served on various civic and non-profit boards and committees.

His civic involvements include appointments to the Board of Directors of the Trinity River Authority by Governor Rick Perry, the Fort Worth Charter Review Task Force by Mayor Betsy Price, and the Downtown Fort Worth Design Review Board. In addition, he is a member of the Boards of the Fort Worth Convention & Visitors Bureau and the University of North Texas Health Science Center Foundation.

Borbolla's involvements in the non-profit community currently include service on the boards of The Bobby Bragan Youth Foundation, Catholic Charities Fort Worth, Christo Rey Fort Worth Catholic High School, Community Hospice of Texas, and Tarrant County Housing Partnership. He also volunteers with the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo, and is a member of the Fort Worth Stock Show Syndicate.

Borbolla and his wife, Becky Renfro Borbolla, reside in Fort Worth.